

125th Anniversary Celebration of
Frank Lloyd Wright's Prairie Design House,
B. Harley Bradley House
Saturday, June 7, 2025

Frank Lloyd Wright, his Prairie Design, and the Houses He built.

Location: Reed Hall of Science, Olivet Nazarene University, Bourbonnais Illinois

Schedule

- |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:30 am       | Welcoming Remarks and Introductions: Bob Bohlmann, AIA, Executive Director, Wright in Kankakee                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 9:45 am       | Introductory Remarks: Frank Lloyd Wright Organizations' Representatives                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 10:30 am      | Frank Lloyd Wright, his Prairie Design, and Why the Prairie Design is unique and a departure from the architecture of the day (John Waters, invited)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 11:30 am      | Break for Lunch (everyone on their own)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1:30 pm       | B. Harley Bradley House, the first Prairie Design and How it was saved from demolition (Gaines Hall, invited)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 2:00 pm       | Other FLW Prairie Homes and Buildings <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Dana Thomas House, Springfield IL 1902 (invited)</li><li>• The Robie House, Hyde Park IL 1908 (invited)</li><li>• The Wescott House, Springfield OH 1908 (invited)</li><li>• Unity Temple, Oak Park IL 1906 (invited)</li><li>• Taliesin East, Spring Green WI, began 1911 (Invited)</li><li>• Laurent House, Rockford IL</li></ul> (20 minutes each) |
| 4:00 pm       | Montage of Frank Lloyd Wright Prairie Design Structures and Beyond (visual ppt)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 4:15 pm       | Conclude, and Invitation to Open House at B. Harley Bradley House                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 5:30 –7:30 pm | Open House at B. Harley Bradley House, includes open visitation, Carriage Gift Shop open, and light refreshments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |